Hemmed into Paris by the enemy, he escaped through the air, at great personal peril; arrived at Tours he became in effect the provisional governor of France. Before his simple command, his hands as empty of real power as an infant's, the greatest generals of the army have gone down into disgrace.

NEW YORK, December 5.—The National rust company, of this city, has posted a notice stating that in consequence of the malicious reports put in circulation regarding the character of the company, and by recommendation of the special bank examiner, it requires the ten days notice, under which all deposits are made. The Evening Post says an examination of the affairs of the company was begun vesterday, and has since been in the army have gone down into disgrace.
